YOUNG PEOPLE'S CONCERTS

Wednesday, Nov. 1, 2023 at 10:30 am & 12 pm

The Symphony's 45-minute "Music Gives Us Courage" concert offers students an opportunity to experience the full orchestra in a fun and engaging performance, with music from Beethoven's Fifth Symphony to Uptown Funk. New this year, we're inviting students to join us at the Rebecca Cohn Auditorium for these performances!

Cost: FREE admission to schools!

Transportation to the Dalhousie Arts Centre is not included.

Throughout the 2023/24 school year with concerts on Wednesday, Apr. 3, 2024 at 10:30 am & 12 pm

This Carnegie Hall Weill Music Institute program pairs Symphony Nova Scotia with elementary students at local schools to learn about orchestras and symphonic music through a year-long, hands-on music curriculum. It culminates in a concert at the Cohn where they sing, play recorder, and/or play the violin with the orchestra.

Cost: FREE participation for schools!

Transportation to the Dalhousie Arts Centre is not included.
